

Internship Available

Position: International Experiential Education Program Development
Industry: Non-Profit/International Development
Function: Internship
Employer: Bridges to Prosperity
Job Title: Cross-Cultural Education Program Intern
Job Location: Denver Area/Broomfield
Start Date: Immediate
Salary: Unpaid Internship

Organization Description

For more than ten years, Bridges to Prosperity has connected local communities with healthcare, education and market opportunities by teaching them how to build footbridges over impassable rivers. Through building to educate, we build local capacity by training community members.

In partnership with corporations, universities such and civic organizations, Bridges develops safe and locally appropriate technologies that are openly shared. International exchange opportunities provide leadership development, team building and personal growth opportunities that give back to our partners for years to come.

Bridges to Prosperity is an international, nonprofit humanitarian organization Bridges to Prosperity provides isolated communities with access to essential healthcare, education and economic opportunities by building footbridges over impassable rivers.

Job Description

Bridges to Prosperity is seeking an exceptional, details-oriented, and committed intern interested in supporting the improvement and expansion of our cultural sensitization and international experiential education program. The goal for this internship will be to support Bridges staff in developing materials to best prepare travelers to understand the cultural contexts in which they are arriving and, to provide resources to encourage a more holistic personal learning experience.

Responsibilities

- Research other experiential education non-profit organizations, specifically those working internationally
- Work with Bridges CEO and University Program Director to define scope and method of delivery for pre-travel materials
- Work with Bridges CEO and University Program Director to develop pre-travel training program materials
- Travel to Bridges to Prosperity program project/s to collect feedback from Bridges' program travelers, including but not limited to the University Program construction projects during the summer of 2012.

Qualifications

- Attention to detail, with ability to both vision and execute on ideas.
- Experience and academic interest in International Development field, ideally with focus on Latin America
- Interest in Experiential Learning and Service-Learning programs and projects
- Experience leading short-term international travel programs is additionally beneficial

To Apply

Email cover letter and resume to info@bridgestoprosperty.org with Subject Line: Cross-Cultural Education Internship. Applications will be reviewed as they are received. Closing date: November 15, 2011. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted. No phone calls please.